

Five Striking Homes Start their Second Century in Style

Color, fabric, and texture surprise in this designer-owned home with a quirky personality. The more you look, the more you see how it all fits together.

Fun and games still rule in a former speakeasy that once hid away in a very private Mediterranean villa nestled in lush gardens and graced with polished décor.

Renovation brought light and openness while honoring the gravitas of an elegant Cape Cod style home decorated with flair and creativity.

A grande dame on Piedmont's historic row, seamlessly transformed for the twenty-first century, has fabulous outdoor spaces to match.

A thorough remodel retained and echoed architectural details and added beautiful surfaces. Everything reflects the loving care this family brought to the project.

For our VIP Guests...

The tour begins for VIP guests with a gala Kickoff Party on Wednesday evening at a fabulous sixth house. Friday morning finds them at breakfast in a beautiful garden on Piedmont's historic row. We're excited to announce that our speaker will be Julie Barton, the New York Times bestselling author of Dog Medicine, How My Dog Saved Me from Myself (Penguin, 2016). Among other accolades, the book was named a 2016 best memoir by both Oprah.com and Huffington Post. An engaging speaker, Ms. Barton lives locally with her husband, two children, and a menagerie of pets.
